

DeviantArt Categories and their Gender Ratio

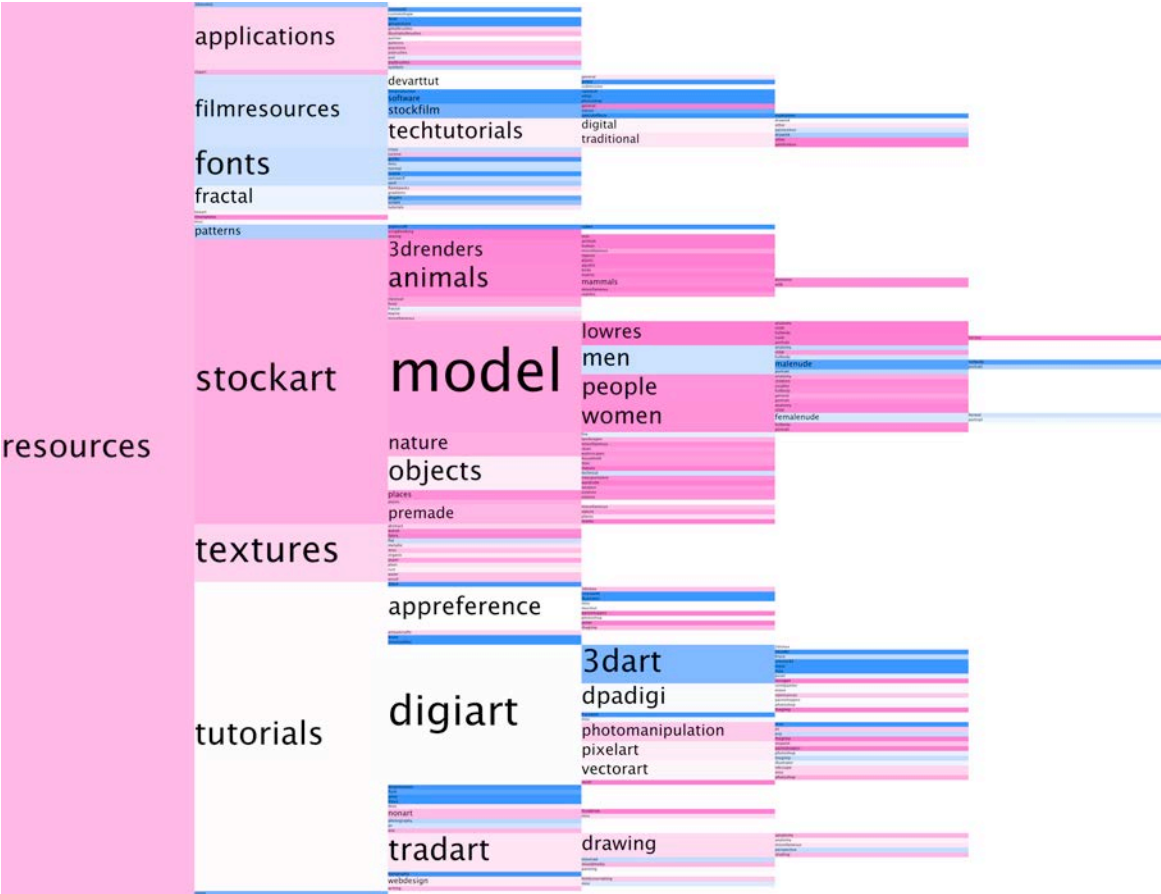

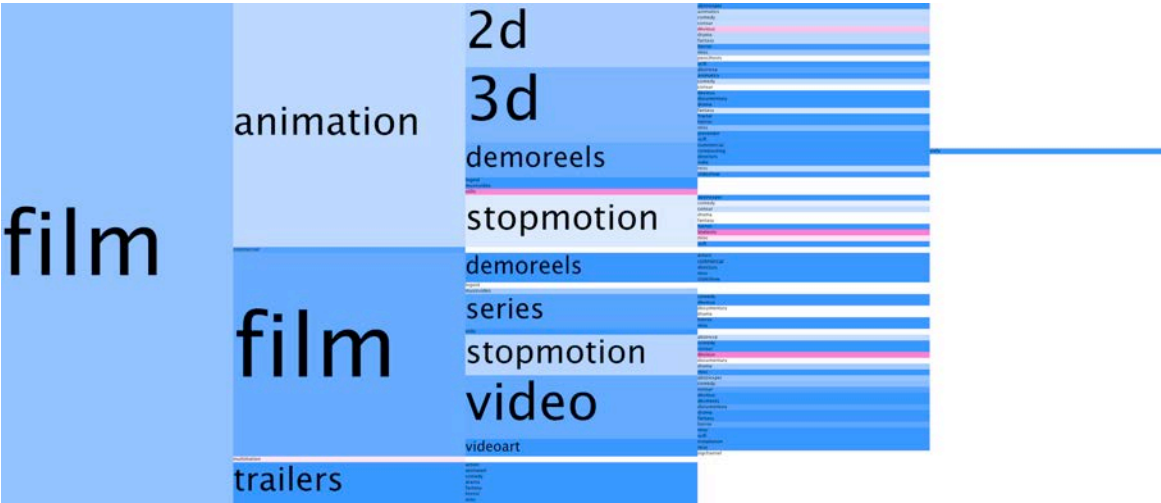

[A visualisation of the categories of deviantArt artwork and their subcategories. Colors correspond to the gender ratio of the category (pink for females, blue for males). Certain patterns emerge such as the prominent female presence in stockart, and the emerging trend to female users throughout time (as observed in contests, 2001-2001).]

Comparing Traditional and Digital deviantArt categories in gender-ratio.

The most heavily male dominated category is film, whereas the most female dominated category is resources.

Certain patterns emerge such as the prominent female presence in stockart, and the emerging trend to female users throughout time (as observed in the contests subcategory (2001-2010)).
